

- 1844 John Stewart born on Island of Arron, Scotland
- 1851-53 Stewart family moved to Megantic, Quebec
- 1852 Annie Jane Davidson born in Quebec on July 15th
- 1872 John Stewart and his two younger brothers, Finlay and Donald, headed off to work in the Redwood forest in California
- 1880 John returned to Canada and purchased a farm on Mud Bay from Samuel Hardy
- 1884 John married Annie Davidson on October 9th in Nanaimo
- 1884-87 John served as Municipal Councillor 1885 John helped build the Mud Bay United Church and served as its senior elder for years
- 1885 Birth of John and Annie's first son, William James, on October 7th
- 1891 Birth of second son, John Massey, on July 18th
- 1892-94 John served as Municipal Councillor
- 1894 Construction of the two-storied Victorian farmhouse to replace the original Hardy home
- 1898 John Stewart and three neighbors formed a dyking company and enclosed 538 acres
- 1913 Annie Stewart died on January 13th (61 years old)
- 1913 William James Stewart married Gertrude Blanch Lewend on February 17th
- 1916 Muriel Stewart born to William and Gertrude
- 1918 John Massey Stewart married Edna Madge Burden on February 6th
- 1919 John Massey Stewart died
- 1920 Kenneth Stewart born to William and Gertrude
- 1920 Edna married Frank Loney on October 18th in the Stewart Farmhouse
- 1926 John Stewart died (82 years old)
- 1942 Muriel Stewart married Lawrence Lynch in the Stewart Farmhouse
- 1944 Ward family of North Vancouver purchased the Stewart property and established the marina
- 1962 William James Stewart died (77 years old)

